Dear Parents of 11th Grade Students:

This coming January, Mr. Andrew Schultz (math) and Mr. Frank Kearns (verbal/writing) will offer an afternoon test preparation course at Oratory Prep School addressing both the SAT and ACT exams. The course will begin on Monday, January 8th, and run for seven consecutive Mondays from 3:00 - 5:00, leading up to the March SAT test date. On Mondays when school is closed (holidays or snow), the class will run on the next day (Tuesday). Students will receive both an hour of math instruction and an hour of verbal instruction during each of the eight classes. Additionally, students will be expected to complete practice work at home in preparation for the weekly meetings. The cost for the course is $400, which includes a copy of The Official SAT Study Guide, published by the College Board, and Peterson's The Real ACT Prep Guide.

The registration deadline for this course is Monday, December 18th. Completed registration forms and payment must be returned to the College Placement Office by this date. Feel free to contact Mr. Schultz (aschultz@oratoryprep.org) or Mr. Kearns (fkearns@oratoryprep.org) with any questions.
